AFFIRMATIVE AND OTHER DEFENSES

First Defense

Plaintiff's Complaint fails to state a claim on which relief may be granted.

Second Defense

The Court lacks subject matter jurisdiction over claims barred by 28 U.S.C. § 2680(a).

Third Defense

If Plaintiff was or might be injured as alleged in its Complaint, which injuries are not admitted but are specifically denied, the injuries were caused in whole or in part by the negligent acts or omissions of Anders Olof Sigurdson, for whose acts or omissions the United States is not liable or responsible.

Fourth Defense

If Plaintiff was or might be injured as alleged in Plaintiffs' Complaint, which injuries are not admitted but are specifically denied, the injuries were caused in whole or in part by the negligent acts or omissions of others, for whose acts or omissions the United States is not liable or responsible.

Fifth Defense

In the event the United States is found to be negligent, which negligence the United States specifically denies, the negligence of Anders Olof Sigurdson, contributed to and/or caused their damages, and any recovery must be proportionately reduced.

Sixth Defense

To the extent that Plaintiff's alleged damages were caused in whole or in part by the negligence of parties other than the United States, and should the United States be found in any way liable in this matter, the United States' liability for Plaintiff's damages, if any, should be allocated to the United States in direct proportion to the United States' percentage of fault, if any.

Seventh Defense

Should the United States be found liable to any of Plaintiff, which liability is expressly denied, the United States is entitled to contribution and/or indemnity from others over whom it had no control, including but not limited to Anders Olof Sigurdson.

Eighth Defense

Plaintiffs' damages, if any, have been caused at least in part by Anders Olof Sigurdson's failure to mitigate damages.

2 Company take nothing by reason of its suit herein, that judgment be rendered in favor of
